Section 5-Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

- (d) The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of The Toro Company (“Toro”), upon recommendation of the Nominating & Governance Committee of the Board, took action to increase the size of the Board from ten directors to eleven directors and elect Michael G. Vale, Ph.D., to fill the vacancy created by such increase, with such increase in the size of the Board and election of Dr. Vale to be effective January 1, 2018. Dr. Vale will join the class of directors having a term ending at Toro’s Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held in March 2018. Dr. Vale will join the Audit Committee and the Finance Committee of the Board, with such appointments also effective January 1, 2018. There are no arrangements or understandings between Dr. Vale and any other person pursuant to which he was selected as a director, and there have been no transactions since the beginning of Toro’s last fiscal year, or are currently proposed, regarding Dr. Vale that are required to be disclosed by Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K. In connection with the election of Dr. Vale to the Board, Toro will enter into an Indemnification Agreement with Dr. Vale in the same form that Toro has entered into with its other non-employee directors, pursuant to which Toro has agreed to provide indemnification and advancement of expenses to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law and Toro’s Restated Certificate of Incorporation and continued director’s and officer’s liability insurance coverage. A copy of the form of Indemnification Agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Dr. Vale, 51, currently serves as the executive vice president, Health Care Business Group of 3M Company (NYSE: MMM), a global diversified technology company based in St. Paul, Minnesota (“3M”). He has served as executive vice president, Health Care Business Group of 3M since July 2016. Previously, he served as 3M’s executive vice president, Consumer Business Group from August 2011 to July 2016. Dr. Vale joined 3M in 1992 and has served in a variety of domestic and international roles, including product development engineer, manufacturing director, managing director of 3M Spain, and managing director of 3M Brazil.

Dr. Vale will receive compensation pursuant to plans and policies applicable to non-employee members of the Board as described on pages 23 to 26 in the Proxy Statement for Toro’s Annual Meeting of Shareholders held on March 21, 2017, under the heading “Director Compensation.”
